He was a hard working man who taught his children the value of hard work and family.

Ron battled health issues for many years but despite the challenges he faced he never lost his sense of humor. Throughout his entire journey he shared his humor and wit with his family, friends, and healthcare workers. His grandchildren loved spending time with their Papa and will truly miss him. Ron will live on in the heart's of all who loved him and will be missed every single day.

Eternal rest, grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
